ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering the hallway you're greeted by the Living room adorned with exposed stone, lending a charming character to the property. This spacious and bright room seamlessly connects to the modern and fully equipped kitchen, where a central island offers ample space for both meal preparation and culinary exploration. Serving as the heart of the home, this kitchen is ideal for hosting social gatherings. An external door provides access to the rear. Conveniently, a downstairs toilet is easily accessible from the hallway.

Ascending to the first floor, a large and bright bedroom offers access to what is currently utilised as a fourth bedroom, but also provides the potential for a walk in wardrobe or study. From the hallway, an additional bedroom and a bathroom can be found. Nestled on the third floor, the master bedroom offers rolling views of the countryside and neighbouring greenery, providing a serene and tranquil retreat.

EXTERNAL

At the rear, a welcoming enclosed garden offers an ideal space for growing families to relish during the summer months. With a fenced border, this enclosed area is perfect for entertaining guests while ensuring privacy and security. Towards the front, shared parking facilities are available, along with two external storage units located further along the row. One unique factor to Cumledge Mill is the extensive communal ground to the front, offering a great family orientated area for young families.
