Tastefully presented and spacious, one-bedroom, lower ground-floor flat, forming part of an impressive, traditional stone-built terrace. Located in Edinburgh's highly sought-after West End.

Comprises an entrance hallway, living room, dining/kitchen, a double bedroom and a bathroom.

This period property includes tall ceilings, sash and case windows, working shutters, and classically proportioned rooms. In addition, there is contemporary flooring and lighting, gas central heating, a stylish, modern kitchen and bathroom.

There is a highly maintained and secluded, shared rear garden, including a terraced shrubbery adjacent, with a shared green beyond.

Set close to the iconic Edinburgh Castle, and close to both Princess Street and Grassmarket, there is ample zoned parking to the front and on the surrounding streets.

A bright entrance hallway is finished with light, neutral decor and modern, wood-effect flooring which continues throughout most of the flat. On the left, a tastefully presented living room is filled with natural light from tall, sash and case windows, with working shutters and garden views. Next door, a kitchen offers ample space for seated dining and provides access to the garden. Modern white units and stone-effect worktops are integrated with an oven, a gas hob and a concealed extractor fan, whilst freestanding appliances include a fridge/freezer, a dishwasher and a washing machine.

The flat's double bedroom enjoys the classical proportions and sunny, southwest-facing aspect of the living space, and further benefits from built-in wardrobe storage.

Completing the accommodation, a bathroom comprises a three-piece suite, a shower-over-bath, tiled splash walls and flooring.
