LOCATION

Kelso, which lies at the meeting point of the Tweed and Teviot rivers, is one of the most attractive and unspoiled towns in the Borders. Notable features are the 12th Century Abbey, the Flemish style cobbled square, Floors Castle and the old bridge across the Tweed. The town has good educational and sporting facilities and many quality shops. The area has much to offer those interested in country pursuits with fishing on the Tweed and is an increasingly sought after location within the Borders.

ACCOMMODATION

With a shared and well kept entrance hallway servicing the apartments, with security entry phone system and a rear door allowing access to the private parking area, 7 Teviot House is located on the second floor. Benefitting from clean, crisp décor throughout, the interior is stylish and contemporary, making the perfect choice for those in search of move in ready accommodation. Cleverly the layout has been designed to make the most of the space, with accommodation over two levels. All three bedrooms are located on the first floor together with the kitchen and family bathroom. Benefitting from an abundance of natural light with two front facing windows, this master bedroom is well proportioned with built-in double wardrobes and complete with en-suite shower room. There are two further bedrooms, both double rooms with space for free standing furniture. The spacious family bathroom is fitted with a white three piece suite and excellent storage. The kitchen is particularly stylish and has been well designed, fitted with an excellent range of walls and base units and with the added benefit of integrated appliances.

With an abundance of natural light, the second floor is dedicated to the impressive lounge/dining room; this room extends from the front to the rear of the building and benefits from a dual aspect with triple windows to the rear which allow access on to the balcony which commands outlooks over the rooftops with the River Tweed and Floors Castle in distance. The decked balcony is a lovely space with a real continental feel, ideal for al fresco dining in the summer months.

EXTERNAL

The apartment benefits from private residents parking to the rear with an allocated parking space per property as well as the rooftop balcony as mentioned.
