LOCATION

Townhill is a small semi rural village community, located approximately one mile north of Dunfermline City Centre and approximately two miles from the national motorway links. The village offers a good range of social and leisure facilities including the Ski centre at Townhill Loch together with Townhill Country Park. Other local amenities include post office, primary school, library and a small selection of local shops for day-to-day necessities. However, a more extensive range of shopping, leisure and social amenities can be found in nearby Dunfermline.
