Location

Newhaven sits on the banks of the Firth of Forth and is approximately two miles to the north of Edinburgh City Centre. There are a variety of pubs, restaurants and local shops on hand, with a wider choice available in the fashionable Shore district, which is within walking distance and boasts a fantastic range of world class restaurants and popular bars. The outdoor enthusiast can enjoy pleasant walks along to Cramond beach and the Water of Leith and the nearby cycle path network provides an excellent off-road route to many parts of the City. Schooling from primary to secondary level is available in the local area. The property is only a short walk away to the new tram stop in Newhaven.

Whilst we endeavour to ensure that our sales particulars are accurate and reliable, the following general points should be noted with regard to the extent of our investigations prior to marketing the property and therefore if any particular aspect is of crucial relevance to you, please contact this office for verification particularly if you are contemplating travelling some distance to view.

- [1] All measurements have been taken using a sonic measuring device and there may be some minor fluctuations in measurements due to the limitations of the device.
- [2] None of the items included in the sale of a working or running nature have been tested by us and this Firm gives no warranty as to their condition.
- [3] Where alterations or improvements have been undertaken by the sellers or their predecessors, we have not specifically established that the renewal or replacement of any of the services or facilities have been whole or partial.
- [4] Verification of Council Tax banding can be obtained from City of Edinburgh Council or Public Libraries.
